Learning together in a changing world, creating success for all.

Trinity Fields School and Resource Centre

Policy for Curriculum Cymreig

Trinity Fields is a Rights Respecting School, a Healthy School and an Inclusive School.

This policy should be read in conjunction with our pupil friendly and adult version of our “Shared Values and Aims”.

Trinity Fields is a Rights Respecting School

Trinity Fields is a Rights Respecting School and we are committed to the principles and values of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) across all areas of our work.

Trinity Fields is a school where pupils are at the heart of everything we do. As part of our aim to promote a happy and successful school we have successfully been awarded UNICEF’s “Rights Respecting School Award” (January 2017).

The ‘Rights Respecting School’ Award (RRSA) helps our pupils become more confident, caring and as independent as possible both in school and within the wider community. By learning about their rights our pupils, your children, also learn about the importance of respecting the rights of others, that is, their responsibilities.

Our pupils are encouraged wherever possible to reflect on how their behaviour and actions affect those around them, which allows us to build and maintain a positive and safe learning environment for all, both in the classroom and around the school site.

Refer to pupil friendly “Pupil Participation” policy and our whole school “Pupil Participation” policy for further details.

Trinity Fields is a Healthy School

We are also a Healthy School and we take responsibility for maintaining and promoting the health and wellbeing of the Trinity Fields team (pupils, parents/carers, staff, governors etc.). This includes teaching pupils about how to lead healthy lives and enabling both pupils and staff to take control over aspects of the school environment which influence their health.

Refer to “Health and Well-being for Pupils” policy and our whole school “Health and Well-being” policy for further details.

Trinity Fields is an Inclusive School (IQM Flagship School status)

We have demonstrated through national annual assessment that we have the capacity to play a strong leadership role in developing inclusion best practice across a network of schools; as well as being committed to extending those networks and publish classroom-based research.

Refer to “Inclusion” policy and to IQM assessment reports for further details.

Education in Wales: Our National Mission

Our work with pupils and their families will be developed building upon Wales' National Mission. This national mission is ambitious, innovative and confident ensuring that we all take responsibility for all of our pupils to have equal opportunities to reach the highest possible standards.

Trinity Fields will continue to develop as a learning organisation to ensure it has the capacity to adapt to and explore a range of new approaches which results in improved outcomes and well-being for all of our pupils.

In order to realise our shared vision and approaches in delivering Wales' transformational curriculum that will enable all of the pupils at Trinity Fields to make the progress commensurate with their individual needs we are committed to the 4 key enabling objectives, detailed in "Education in Wales: Our national mission (2017). These are:

- Developing a high-quality education profession.
- Inspirational leaders working collaboratively to raise standards.
- Strong and inclusive schools committed to excellent, equity and well-being.
- Robust assessment, evaluation and accountability arrangements supporting a self-improving system.

The core purposes and values that are associated with these prestigious national awards are encapsulated in our vision and aims:

"We believe that everyone at Trinity Fields is entitled to have access to the very best learning opportunities. These will be provided within a safe, caring and stimulating environment that will enable all learners to achieve their full potential through learning opportunities that meet their individual needs".

Wales is a country rich in cultural diversity and heritage. The Curriculum Cymreig is an entitlement of all pupils in Wales to be made aware of the particular environment, traditions and culture in which they live.

The National Curriculum Orders for Music, History, Geography, Art and Welsh itself are unique to Wales in their content. Curriculum Cymreig gives all pupils the opportunity to apply their knowledge and understanding of their historical, geographical, economic, musical and cultural environment to their work across the whole of the curriculum.

Curriculum Cymreig is the uniqueness which defines the character and ethos of the Welsh school environment and will be interpreted differently in every school in the Principality.

This policy should be read in conjunction with the following whole school policies:

- Welsh Second Language
- Equal Opportunities
- Race Equality
- Art, Music, Geography, History
- Display
- Music

Aims

Our aims for the implementation of the Curriculum Cymreig at Trinity Fields are that all pupils can experience and gain:

- a sense of place and heritage;
- a sense of being Welsh;
- a sense of pride in Wales;
- a better understanding of the creative and expressive arts that are unique to Wales and the particular area of Wales in which the pupils live;
- an awareness of the religious beliefs and practices of Wales and the Christian tradition of Church and Chapel;
- an appreciation of the Welsh Language and its use in everyday situations.

Teaching strategies

As with all areas of the curriculum, a wide range of teaching strategies will be employed to provide a rich source of experiences and activities. These will include:

- Visits to places of interest: St. Fagans, Cardiff Bay, Brecon Beacons Visitors Centre, Cafartha Park, Welsh Heritage Coast etc.
- Visitors coming to talk to the pupils about their specialisms: Welsh artists, Assembly Members, Welsh MP etc.
- Local and national celebrations: Saint David's Day Eisteddfod (poetry, art, music, dance etc.) etc.

Every opportunity will be taken to value, celebrate and record pupils' involvement with the local community and activities associated with Welsh history, culture and language.

The emphasis in learning and teaching will be on first hand experiences, with particular emphasis given to visiting places of importance within the past and present culture of Wales and their relationship to other areas of the curriculum. Pupils are also given the opportunity to participate in residential work as and when appropriate

Use of the Welsh Language

The school has a Welsh Second Language co-ordinator who is also responsible for developing bilingualism and Curriculum Cymreig throughout the school. Welsh labels and accompanying symbols have been introduced across the school.

All staff are encouraged to use simple Welsh greetings, words of thanks, responses to registration etc. where appropriate. Staff are also encouraged to provide some Welsh input (with Sign-a-long) in school and class assemblies.

Opportunities are given wherever relevant to implement the Curriculum Cymreig in all curriculum areas.

School library

There is a range of Welsh picture and story books in the school library. Additional books and resources are available from the local libraries.

School Eisteddfod

All pupils take part in an annual Eisteddfod during the first week of March. These celebrations culminate in a concert and award ceremony on March 1st and include: Welsh Folk dancing, Welsh songs, the story of Saint David, tasting Welsh food and singing the Welsh National Anthem.

A wide variety of competitions are organised that include:

- Home school competitions
- Cookery
- Collage
- Painting
- Handwriting
- Poetry
- Drawing

At Trinity Fields we are proud of our Welsh heritage and we aim to provide every opportunity for all pupils to develop an awareness and pride in the fact that they are citizens of Wales.
